Justification and Disposition

If specimens of the proposed types already exist in a repository, explain why additional collecting is necessary:

Summarize any mitigations associated with these collections:

Indicate the final disposition of these collections (select all that apply):

- ☐ Temporarily captured or handled and then released undamaged in place
- ☐ Will be destroyed through analysis or discarded after analysis
- ☐ Permanently retained (Provide repository information. Unless deaccession agreement is reached, NOAA retains ownership of retained specimens.)
